FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MILLER-BOYKIN NAMED GUEST SERVICES VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

WAKE FOREST, NC – April 15, 2011 – Rosa Miller-Boykin is the recipient of the Town of Wake Forest’s 2011 Guest Services Volunteer of the Year award.

Finance Director Aileen Staples made the announcement on Thursday, April 14, during the Town’s first-ever Guest Services Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon at the Wake Forest Community House.

In presenting the award, Staples recognized Miller-Boykin’s contribution of over 100 volunteer hours to the Town’s guest services volunteer program since its inception in November 2010.

A retired substitute school teacher, Miller-Boykin moved to Wake Forest six years ago. In addition to volunteering at town hall, she also donates her time at area nursing homes.

“I enjoy reaching out to others by giving of my time wherever it’s needed,” said Miller-Boykin.

Approximately 50 volunteers and Wake Forest staff attended Thursday’s luncheon that also included remarks by Mayor Vivian Jones and Town Manager Mark Williams, certificate presentations to all the guest services volunteers, and door prizes.

The Town of Wake Forest is currently accepting applications from area residents interested in volunteering at town hall. For more information or to download an application, visit www.wakeforestnc.gov/volunteer.aspx.
