FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOCUS ON WAKE FOREST WINS PRESTIGIOUS VIDEO PRODUCTION AWARD

WAKE FOREST, NC – April 9, 2007 – Focus on Wake Forest, the Town of Wake Forest's monthly news and information program airing on Community Channel 10, has won the prestigious Telly Award for video production in the 28th Annual Telly Awards competition.

Founded in 1978, the Telly Awards honor the very best local, regional, and cable television commercials and programs, as well as the finest video and film productions. Each year more than 13,000 entries from around the world are submitted for Telly Awards. Former recipients include Microsoft, NBA Entertainment, Nickelodeon, Nike Inc., and Black Entertainment Television.

Focus on Wake Forest is produced through a collaborative effort between the Town of Wake Forest and Media Guru Communications, a local full-service communications and creative services firm. Hosted by Bill Crabtree, the Town's communications specialist, the public affairs program features Town of Wake Forest programs, services and special events.

The Town unveiled Focus on Wake Forest in February 2007. New episodes are introduced each month on Community Channel 10 and online on the Town's website at www.wakeforestnc.gov/focusonwakeforest.aspx.

As Wake Forest's government access channel, Community Channel 10 is dedicated to providing Town government information. Introduced in the mid-1980s with a grant from Time Warner Cable as part of the Town's Cable Television Franchise Agreement, the channel operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In addition to Focus on Wake Forest, Community Channel 10 also airs live Planning Board and Board of Commissioners meetings, which are then re-broadcast over the following two weeks.
