Business:

Meet in the Street

Sherry Burchett completed the application and sent it in for the Human Relations Council to participate in this event. A sign up sheet will be given out at the April meeting to everyone so the booth can be manned at all times. The events hours are from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Some of the new members did not know about the event. This event was explained to them. Members will be prepared to give out flyers at this event promoting Good Neighbor Day.

Good Neighbor Day

Sponsorship for Good Neighbor Day was discussed. Letters have been sent out and promising sponsorships are coming in and the goal to make this event a success is $5000 in sponsorships. So far Wake Electric, Home Depot, Rex Healthcare, Texas Roadhouse, Chick-fil-A, and Walmart want to contribute. Tee shirts were mentioned and the anticipation of catering to one thousand patrons because the Council is planning ahead this year. Each member was advised to carry a sponsorship letter with them along with a receipt when they are out soliciting for donations. Many more businesses were mentioned and HRC members will be contacting these businesses for monetary or other donations for this special event.

With no further business to come before the Council, Meredith Brown made a motion, seconded by Karen McVicker to adjourn the meeting at 8:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by,
