FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHRISTMAS PARADE AIRING ON COMMUNITY CHANNEL 10

WAKE FOREST, NC – December 22, 2008 – If you missed the 2008 Wake Forest Christmas Parade on Dec. 13 or you were there and would like to see it again, then be sure to tune in to Community Channel 10 throughout December for your chance to experience the sights and sounds of one of our area’s most popular holiday events.

For the first-time ever, the Town of Wake Forest is re-broadcasting the Christmas Parade on Community Channel 10. The Town will replay the parade each day through Jan. 4 at 8 am, 3 pm and 8 pm, except on Wednesdays and Thursdays when it will be shown at 8 am and 3 pm only.

Brian Pate hosts the parade, and Mayor Vivian Jones, Centennial Celebration Events Coordinator Kara Louise, 2008 Wake Forest Christmas Parade Grand Marshal Chuck Hess and Downtown Revitalization Corporation Executive Director Maggie O’Neill all stop by for a visit.

Sponsored by the Downtown Revitalization Corporation (DRC), the parade features several local marching bands, fantastic floats, entertainers and – of course – Santa Claus.

“We’re very excited to offer this year’s Christmas parade on Community Channel 10,” said Public Information Officer Bill Crabtree.

“We believe this is another way we can utilize our government access channel to promote the good things happening in Wake Forest.”
