FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WAKE FOREST POLICE WIN SECOND CONSECUTIVE CHARITY SOFTBALL TOURNEY

WAKE FOREST, NC – April 12, 2010 – The Wake Forest Police Department (WFPD) earned another year’s worth of bragging rights over the weekend thanks to a perfect 3-0 showing in the annual “200 Club of Wake County Charity Softball Tournament.” This marks the second consecutive year the team has finished undefeated in the tourney which pits Wake County public safety units against one another on a truly level playing field - the softball diamond.

Over the course of three games, the WFPD defeated the team from Wendell, 16-0, and the Zebulon squad, 26-9, before dispatching the Wake Forest Fire Department, 9-5.

Members of this year’s police department team were Brandon Atkins, Adam Carlson, Trent Coleman, Brandon Cribb, Larry Danforth, Scott Graham, John Naumuk, Chris Minor, Matthew Perkinson, Cindy Perry, Brad Pleasant, Michael Sattler, Kim Warren, and Robert Woyicki.

In addition to the all-important bragging rights, the team’s victory ensures the tournament trophy will remain at the WFPD for another year – at least.

The Wake Forest Police Department wishes to thank all the sponsors for their support of this year’s event.

The annual tournament raises funds for the 200 Club of Wake County, an organization of concerned citizens dedicated to providing immediate financial help for the spouse and children of police officers, sheriff deputies, firemen, EMS squad members and North Carolina State Highway Patrol serving in Wake County who lose their life in the line of duty.
