FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“CENTENNIAL IMAGES: AN EXHIBIT OF WAKE FOREST ART”
OPENS MAY 1

WAKE FOREST, NC – April 24, 2009 – Twenty area artists generously donated works of art to be included in Connections...100 Years of Wake Forest History, a book chronicling the people, places, and events of Wake Forest’s first 100 years. Those pieces of art, along with additional drawings, paintings and photographs of local interest, will be featured in "Centennial Images: An Exhibit of Wake Forest Art."

The exhibit gets underway Friday, May 1 with a special opening reception at the Powers-Ludas House, 112 North Ave. Parking will be available across the street in the Orange parking lot on the campus of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

The exhibit and the opening reception are free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served while attendees have an opportunity to meet several of the artists and listen to music performed by "Mister Felix."

“Centennial Images” is being sponsored by Wine 101, Sunflower Studio & Gallery, and Forensic Press. The free art exhibit continues from noon to 4 pm on Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays through May 17.
