FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOLDING PARK TO HOST CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION CONCERT

WAKE FOREST, NC – April 7, 2009 – The Wake Forest Centennial Celebration Committee announced today that the Six Sundays in Spring Centennial Concert will be held at Holding Park, 133 W. Owen Ave.

The April 19 concert, which will kick off the 2009 Six Sundays in Spring concert series, was originally scheduled to be held at E. Carroll Joyner Park, 701 Harris Road. Construction delays caused by recent rains, however, will prevent the park from opening until sometime this summer.

As a result, all of the Six Sundays in Spring performances will move to Holding Park, including the Centennial Concert. In the event of rain, the April 19 concert will be moved indoors to Wake Forest Baptist Church, 118 E. South Ave.

The Wake Forest Singers, directed by Ginger Graves, will headline the Centennial Concert and perform "Music Through the Decades."
