FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TOWN HALL SURPLUS FURNITURE AUCTION

WAKE FOREST, NC – April 7, 2010 – The Town of Wake Forest is offering surplus furniture and other items for public sale on GovDeals, an online auction service, from now through Monday, April 19, at 7 p.m.

Surplus items for sale include, but are not limited to, file and storage cabinets, bookcases, chairs, tables, and desks, as well as various other equipment and miscellaneous items used in government operations.

The items will be sold “as is” and will be available for inspection on Monday, April 12, at 10 a.m.

To view the surplus furniture and place a bid, visit www.govdeals.com and click on the “Advanced Search” link; Click on the drop down menu, located under “Seller Name”; Scroll down and click on "Wake Forest, NC" to populate the seller name box; Click "Search."

Anyone interested in placing a bid must first register with the GovDeals website and obtain a bidder number.

Cash, money order, or certified check made payable to “Town of Wake Forest” will be accepted at point of sale. Winning bidders are responsible for transporting all items which must be removed from the building by a date that has yet to be determined.

For more information, contact Purchasing Manager Randy Driver at (919) 554-6115 or rdriver@wakeforestnc.gov.
