FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HRC OFFERS COMMUNITY OUTREACH NIGHT
FOR EAST END COMMUNITY ON OCT. 27

WAKE FOREST, NC – October 18, 2011 – The Wake Forest Human Relations Council (HRC) is sponsoring its second Community Outreach Night of 2011 on Thursday, Oct. 27, from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the Faith Tabernacle United Holy Church, 741 E. Juniper Ave. All residents in the East End Community are invited to attend the event, meet local officials, and learn more about Town programs and services.

The session will get underway at 6:30 p.m. with a panel discussion that includes Mayor Vivian Jones, Town Manager Mark Williams, and Police Chief Jeff Leonard. Panelists will share information about Wake Forest's opportunities and challenges in 2011 and beyond, parks and recreation programs, downtown Wake Forest, ways to stay informed and get involved, and much more.

An informal meet and greet time will follow the panel discussion until 8 p.m.

The HRC is one of 11 Town of Wake Forest advisory boards. Its purpose is to encourage understanding and good will between all Wake Forest citizens regardless of race, sex, religion, creed, nationality, or economic status, and thus promote the general welfare of the Town. The HRC plans to schedule similar community outreach events in 2012 for residents in other areas of Wake Forest.
