FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALLING ALL WAKE FOREST HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVES

WAKE FOREST, NC – February 28, 2011 – The Town of Wake Forest wants to ensure that we are able to keep community representatives throughout Wake Forest informed on important topics impacting your area.

That's why we are asking neighborhood and homeowners' association representatives to subscribe to E-News, Wake Forest's free monthly electronic newsletter. In addition to E-News, subscribers will also receive The Week Ahead, a weekly e-listing of upcoming community events, and occasional E-Alerts, which include breaking news, important warnings, and other special announcements.

Signing up for E-News is easy. Simply email Public Information Officer Bill Crabtree at bcrabtree@wakeforestnc.gov and type SUBSCRIBE ENEWS in the subject line. If you represent a particular Wake Forest community, please provide the neighborhood or homeowners' association in the body of the email. Your email address will only be used to inform you of Town-related business and you may unsubscribe at any time.
