WAKE FOREST, NC – July 16, 2012 – The Wake Forest Parks & Recreation Department and the North Carolina Coastal Pines Wake 13 Girl Scouts are celebrating the Girls Scouts' 100th anniversary by sponsoring a free Family Movie Night at the E. Carroll Joyner Park Amphitheater on Saturday, Aug. 18.

The festivities will get underway with a sing-a-long at 8 p.m., followed by the movie showing at 8:30 p.m. Please visit the Community Calendar on the Town's website at www.wakeforestnc.gov/communitycalendar.aspx for complete details concerning the movie.

The event is free and open to the public, but the girl scouts will be accepting pet supply donations. Free popcorn will be served while supplies last, and assorted food vendors will be on site selling snacks and beverages.
